

ON ASYMPTOTIC DISTRIBUTIONS OF TWO TESTS FOR MULTIVARIATE NORMALITY BASED ON KURTOSIS

Joanna Tarasinska and Zofia Hanusz

Agricultural University of Lublin, Poland

Some simulation results concerning the distributions of Mardia's and Srivastava's test statistics for multivariate normality are presented. These outcomes point that the most often used approximations can lead to false conclusions. The proposed small correction give good effects, even in the case of small samples.