

A TEST FOR MULTIVARIATE NORMALITY BASED ON GRAPHICAL METHODS

Zofia Hanusz and Joanna Tarasinska

Agricultural University of Lublin, Poland

A problem of testing multivariate normality of the observations is considered. The attempt of changing the subjective graphical methods into objective statistical test is undertaken. A certain measure of goodness of fit is proposed. The power of proposed test is compared to others known tests.